The Little Bee

Billy is a little bee. She lives with other bees in a hive. She loves to sing and dance. One day, the queen bee calls all the bees and says, "Go and bring sweet juice from the flowers. We'll make honey with it. Only then you will get food to eat."

All the bees go to collect the sweet juice. Only Billy does not go. She says, "It's only morning now. I have the full day to get the juice. I will go after singing my favourite song and dancing on it."

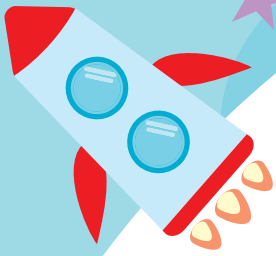

Billy gets so tired after singing and dancing that she goes to sleep. It is already evening when she wakes up. She takes her bucket and goes to get the juice.

While flying, she sees the other bees coming back with their buckets full of juice. Billy requests one of them to tell her the way to the garden. The bee says, "It's getting dark. If you go now, you may lose your way back to the hive. Go back and apologize to the queen bee. She is very kind. She will surely forgive you."

Billy goes to the queen bee and tells her why she could not get the juice. She also says, "I am very sorry queen bee. I promise I will always do my work first and then enjoy myself."

The queen bee forgives Billy. From that day, Billy sings and dances only after finishing her work. She is a good bee now.

Moral of the story: We must do our work on time.
